"Georgi Benkovski" Military Aviation School 25X1

1. The "Georgi Benkovski" Military Aviation School (Narodno Voenno Vuzdushno Uchilishte) is located at the Dolna Mitropoliya Airfield in 25X1 Pleven Okoliya.
2. The school is only for pilots, and the course of studies is three years. Applicants must be less than 26 years old, have completed the seventh grade and be recommended by the Communist Party. Until 1952, only those who were graduates of the DOSO (Dobrovolna Organizatsiya za Sudeystvie na Otbranata; Voluntary Organization for Defense Assistance) Aero Club pilot's course were accepted. In 1952, about 200 out of 1200 applicants, including some who had not had the DOSO pilot training, were accepted at the school. Those who had completed the DOSO pilot training but were not accepted, allegedly because of political unreliability, objected to this policy. They were told by Colonel Doncho Dimitrov, a DOSO inspector of aviation that in 1953 only those graduating from the DOSO Aero Club course would be accepted. Initially two girls who graduated from the Aero Club pilot's course were refused admittance to the school. Later they were asked to enter the school for air navigation officers. 25X1
3. The entrance examination for both Aero Club members and non-members included questions on Bulgarian literature, mathematics and politics. Aero Club members were asked, in addition, questions concerning practical and theoretical aviation, air navigation and flying practices. The examination was entirely written. 25X1
